

OKLAHOMA
COMMANDER'S & ADJUTANT'S ASSOCIATION
ANNUAL ELECTION JUNE, 2016
STANDING RULES

The elections will be in accordance with the Commander's & Adjutant's Association Constitution and Bylaws approved on October 13, 2012 and the current version of Roberts Rules of Order

Nomination Committee will give its report

Nominations for the following positions will come from the floor in the following order

- (1) President
- (2) Vice-President
- (3) Even Chapter Executive Committee Member
- (4) Even Chapter Executive Committee Member

Nominations do not require a second

Nominees must be members in good standing and may be nominated for more than one position. However, members may only nominate one candidate for each position until all members have been given the opportunity to nominate a candidate

The nominating individual will be allowed 2-minutes to talk about the candidate, or defer the 2-minutes to another Chapter member in good standing to speak

If the candidate accepts the nomination, they will be given 3-minutes to speak

Voting will be by a show of hands and tallied by the current Secretary/Treasurer, unless they are a candidate for a position, then another member not running for elected position may provide the tally. In the event more than two (2) candidates are nominated for the same office and no candidate receives more than (50) percent of the votes in the first balloting, the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes will compete in a run-off election.

Results will be announced by the Association President for each position prior to voting taking place on the next position.

All newly elected officers will be sworn in immediately following the election of the final position.
